

Please do not force changes to the Indiana phone privacy act. This act in Indiana has made our life at home much more peaceful. We no longer have to be interrupted by credit card companies etc. who always pick the worst times to call. Please allow Indiana to keep its current law, and not be hampered by a less restrictive Federal law.